For consistently delivering excellence 2020 feefo

Operating with Confidence in a New Normal.

COVID brought with it countless unprecedented changes to arguably every facet of our lives, and none more so than for the workplace. Now, there's a new hill to climb –COVID-19 vaccinations.

In this free HR workshop, specialists from Employsure will explain how employer's workplace health and safety obligations interact with the COVID-19 vaccination rollout. Also, with Easter and ANZAC Day coming up, employers will soon have to deal with rules and regulations around public holiday entitlements. Employsure wants to see small businesses thrive – these workshops are designed to help small businesses and employers understand the technical stuff so they can focus on their passion.

This workshop will cover:

- Engaging employees
- Vaccinations and your workplace
- Leave management
- Leveraging your technology with BrightHR
